

The evil that one do, lives after them . . . Shakespeare Justice Without Consent Linda Robert, Amy James, Jennifer Schultz, and Lena Johnson experience different unpredictable incidents that cause them to seek justice without consent, after their backs are against the wall. Linda and Jennifers abuse and threats violate their physical and psychological makeup to the degree they find love in defiance of their belief. Amys failed attempts to achieve satisfaction wonder what would happen if she consents to Lindas promise. Lenas peace of mind ends, when she sees her husband, Gordons money on the floor in their kitchen, on the kitchen table, and more inside his uniform pants pockets. Gordon is a police officer, and he will serve time in prison if anyone reports his secret to the police department internal investigation unit.
