

The Prophecies of Isaiah

A madness engulfs the Republic after 9/11, eventually swallowing it, digesting it and the result is a fascist state, the tools of its oppression being religious fanaticism, violence and the 24/7 lust for power. And land. For the armies of the Republic invade Nova Scotia and reduce the local population to slaves. Eventually, the armies move to Cape Breton and there, one woman defies them. It is the beginning of a decline, the seeds of which were sown by the Republic's leaders a half-century earlier. This is a tale told by three narrators over 30 years, a tale of struggle for freedom, independence and finally peace. It has always been easier to wage war than foster and sustain peace.
