

The Faerie Child

A trilogy set in England and Ireland in the era of the Suffragettes and the Roaring Twenties. A desperately unhappy wife is facing the starkness of her life and the bleakness of its future if she does not find the courage to make some changes. Her choices are limited to one option when she meets her son with a beautiful mysterious stranger to whom she feels a curious familial connection. A re-occurring dream presents her with a series of signs and symbols, which when forced to follow lead to the opening of Pandoras Box.
