

The Tulip Girl

Abandoned outside an orphanage as a newborn baby, spirited Maddie March has had to fight her way through life. So when she finds a home at Few Farm with Frank Brackenbury and his household, she welcomes the chance for a fresh start. Work on the farm is hard, but believing herself truly loved for the first time in her young life by the farmers son, Michael, even the animosity of the housekeeper Mrs Trowbridge cannot mar Maddies newfound happiness. The year 1947 brings harsh winter, sweeping devastation over the farm and threatening the Brackenburys livelihood. All seems lost, until Maddie has an idea that might save them all from poverty. But then she discovers she is pregnant...The Tulip Girl is Margaret Dickinsons captivating new Lincolnshire saga about the endurance of true love in the face of adversity.
