

The Drums, the Fog, the Terrible Shadows of War (The Satterfield Saga Book 5)

Members of a divided Satterfield family fight for opposing causes. Jon, the familys hope for the future, drifts southward. When boyhood friends, the sons of General Robert E. Lee, join their father, Jon enlists as a member of Lees staff. The Satterfield family patriarch, Scottie, begins the war as Lincolns Assistant Secretary of War Procurement. As the war progresses, the Satterfields engage with the most famous and colorful personalities of the time. Jon commands a cavalry regiment and meets his brother-in-law on the field of battle. Andrew Kelly, Scotties illegitimate son, decides to take revenge on his uncaring father by killing Satterfields under the cloak of the battlefield. Andrew pursues his prey until he confronts Scottie and Jon at the wars end.
