

We Three (The Red Crocodile) (Volume 1)

The Red Crocodile- a novel in four volumes - is a contemporary Chaucerian tale of love and lust, written in true mediaeval style using plain language a bawdy romp which takes the characters across a decadent world and towards the end of the Twentieth Century. We Threecan be read as the first or the last volume ofThe Red Crocodile. It is set in Switzerland and South America. Three teenagers begin a holiday together and discover they have more in common than they realised. Events lead them to search for a missing person in South America where they learn more about themselves and the influences that have formed their characters.
